Message from Mrs Money

I am really looking forward to our very first SANDFEST event tomorrow and am keeping everything crossed for good weather! This is an opportunity for our school community to come together again for a relaxed and fun filled afternoon. Please see the email from the office sent today which outlines the timings for performances and what to bring with you, or refer to the details included in this newsletter.

Last week we were joined by a team from BMW who in conjunction with CMPP (community matters partnership project) repainted all of our outdoor play equipment. This huge job was completed in 6 hours much to the amazement of the children who watched avidly as the team worked their way around the playground! Thank you to the project for making such a huge difference in our little school.

Thank you to all of the children who entertained Dads, Grandads and Uncles in the Fathers day assemblies and to Moles who were amazing in their class assembly all about adventures.

We were very lucky to have a visit from author Alison Simpson who read her story about Bodhi the pirate dog to all of the children throughout the day. This is a gorgeous story about self worth and acceptance, so if you haven't already had an opportunity to look her up online, I would highly recommend it...and the song is really catchy too!

This week a group of children took part in the Kite Champions day at Hale Primary Academy along with representatives from all of the other 9 Kite Trust schools. They were incredible at all of their events, behaved impeccably and made parents and teachers feel incredibly proud of them. To top it all we came first in the competition...congratulations Sandringham! Thank you to Mrs Thomas and Miss Randles for organising the team and for their enthusiasm at the event.

I am delighted to share that Mrs McClelland who has been completing her teacher training in Year 1 this year has passed all of her final assessments with flying colours. I am also delighted to share that she will be remaining at Sandringham next year. Confirmation of all teaching staff will be sent to parents on Monday next week ahead of moving up day on Wednesday.

Have a wonderful weekend.
