Message from Mrs Money

Welcome back to the Spring term and to 2022! Happy New Year to you all. I hope that you had a restful break and managed to stay well and celebrate with your families. Thank you again on behalf of myself and the staff for our thoughtful gifts and kind messages at the end of last term. Christmas feels like a long time ago now that this half term is already in full swing!

This half term the core value is Responsibility. Today in assembly we talked about what the adults in school are responsible for. We are encouraging the children to take responsibility for their belongings, themselves, their behaviour and the world around them. Please support us by talking to your children at home about what they are responsible for such as making their bed, feeding their pets, laying the table, etc.

This term Mrs Bellchambers and her Eco-Warriors after school club are taking part in the Tub2Pub campaign - a recycling campaign which is also raising money for Macmillan Cancer Support. Please send your empty Quality Street, Roses, Heroes and Celebration tubs into the school office for the Eco-Warriors to donate.

At the end of last term our school Cook, Mrs Steggall decided to retire after an incredible 25 years preparing and serving hot lunches to Sandringham children, staff and parents. She will be joining us for an assembly next Friday for us to say goodbye and we would like to give her a gift from the school. If you would like to contribute to this collection please send this in an envelope to the school office in an envelope marked 'Mrs Steggall collection' by Wednesday 12th January.

Unfortunately on the first day back to school I have received a complaint from a neighbour regarding dangerous parking by a parent. Please can I ask that you park safely, legally and with consideration to neighbours and the school community at all times. I would much rather your children arrived safely, albeit late to school, if it avoids an accident or a conversation with an angry neighbour.

Included in this newsletter are diary dates for this term. Although I sincerely hope that events will all go ahead as planned I will of course keep you updated of any changes based upon any Government guidance at the time.

This week we have received our final total of money raised for the Reindeer Run last December...an incredible £1959.15. Thank you so much for supporting us and the incredible work of the Phyllis Tuckwell Hospice.

PLEASE REMEMBER
