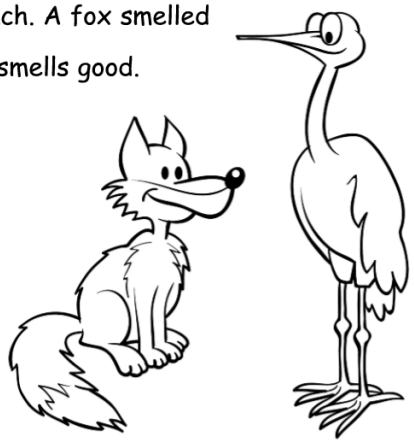
Reading Comprehension

The Stork and The Fox

A stork was cooking some lunch. A fox smelled the lunch and he said, "That smells good. Can I have some?"
The stork said "Yes you can."



1. Who was cooking some lunch?

- [ ] a fox
- [ ] a cat
- [ ] a stork
- [ ] a dog

2. What did the fox ask?

_____

_____

_____

The stork gave the fox his lunch. It was in a long, thin tube. The stork put her long, thin bill into her long, thin tube and started to eat. The fox couldn't eat because he didn't have a long, thin bill. He went home feeling hungry.

3 How did the stork serve lunch?

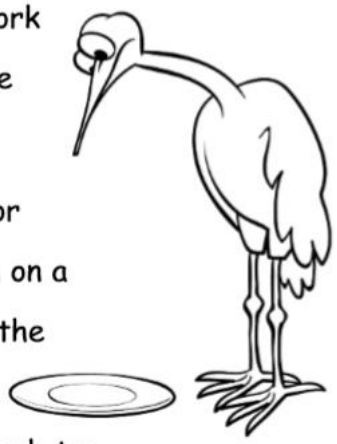
- ☐ in a long, thin tube
- ☐ in a long, thin bill
- ☐ in a short, fat tube
- ☐ in a short, fat bill

4 Why did the fox go home feeling hungry?

_____

_____

Then the fox wrote a letter to the stork. The letter said thank you for lunch and it asked the stork to come and have lunch with the fox the next day.



So the stork went to the fox's house for lunch. The fox gave the stork her lunch on a flat plate. The fox licked his lunch off the flat plate but the stork couldn't lick up her lunch. So the fox ate the stork's lunch too. The stork went home feeling hungry.

5 Why did the fox write a letter? Give two reasons.

i) _____

ii) _____

6 When did the stork go to the fox's house?

_____

7 Why was the stork unhappy with the lunch the fox gave her?

_____

8 The stork went home feeling:

☐ pleased ☐ full

☐ happy ☐ hungry

These questions are about the whole text.

9 Why did the fox ask the stork to come to lunch?

_____

_____

_____

10 Match the beginning and end of the sentences.

The fox liked his lunch	in a long, thin tube.
The stork liked her lunch	in a long, thin tube.
The fox gave the stork her lunch	on a flat plate.
The stork gave the fox his lunch	on a flat plate.